

Definition of Done

This document contains information about DoD for group number 13 during the development of the MyBar Android application.

Level one – Story DoD

Code

- Have a good code base
- Added the license information for the code in the Java files.
- Comment all code that needs some sort of clarification or explaining.
- Have tested the app on Android ≥ 4 and got a positive response.
- Have tested the GUI according to test for the specific user story.
- All unnecessary code is removed and the code is well formatted according to the Java standard.
- All the external data dependences is available.
- Merged all branches with new features to master.
- Committed all changes to the Git hub master branch.

Testing

- Used Unit testing to test most of the code.
- Have tested the app on Android ≥ 4 and got a positive response.
- Have tested the app according to test for the specific user story.
- External data dependences is available and tested.

Documentation

- The functions in the application are documented.
- Bugs and limitations is reported.
- The development guide is update with necessary information.